

Aristotle's Organon in old and new logic, c. 1800–1950

Villa Vigoni
Lake Como
March 11-12, 2022

Friday, March 11

9-9.50	Gerald Hartung (Wuppertal) Carl Prantl: Das Organon des Aristoteles und die Anfänge der Forschungen zur philosophischen Terminologie
9.50-10.40	Giovanni Bonacina (Urbino) A «Natural History of the Finite Spirit»: Aristotle’s Logic in Hegel’s Lectures on the History of Philosophy
10.40-11	Break
11-11.50	Elena Ficara (Paderborn) Hegel’s reading of Aristotle’s Organon and the philosophical roots of non-classical logics
11.50-12.40	Venanzio Raspa (Urbino) Kant and the Debate on Aristotle’s Categories in the Nineteenth Century
13-14.30	Lunch
14.30-15.20	Ana Maria Mora Marquez (Gothenburg) Jaime Balmes’ Neo-Scholastic Logic: The Principle of Non-Contradiction and the Foundation of Certainty
15.20-16.10	Colin Guthrie King (Providence) Reforming Aristotle’s Logic in Brentano’s School
16.10-16.30	Break
16.30-17.20	Christof Rapp (München) Apelt, Bonitz and Brentano on the Origin of the Ten Aristotelian Categories
17.20-18.10	Kevin Mulligan (Lugano) True Being vs Being True

Saturday, March 12

9-9.50	Doukas Kapantais (Athens) & George Karamanolis (Wien) Aristotle’s Syllogistic: From premisses to conclusions or from conclusions to premisses?
9.50-10.40	Marko Malink (New York) Boole, Peirce, and Schröder on Expressing Particular Propositions
10.40-11	Break
11-11.50	Mathieu Marion (Montréal) Dialectic and Existential Import
11.50-12.40	Fabian Ruge (Bochum) Aristotle’s Thesis and Propositional Logic
13-14.30	Lunch
14.30-15.20	Zoë McConaughey (Lille) Does the choice of a modern formal logic influence the interpretation of Aristotle’s syllogistic? A study of Kurt Ebbinghaus’ answer
15.20-16.10	Paolo Fait (Oxford) Łukasiewicz on the Syllogism, the Law of Non-Contradiction, and the Dictum de Omni et de Nullo
16.10-16.30	Break
16.30-17.20	Christopher Izgin (Berlin) Aristotle on the Versions of the Principle of Non-Contradiction
17.20-18.10	Lukas M. Verburgt (Leiden) A Baconian’s Aristotle: The Whewell-Munro Debate on the Prior Analytics

The conference is funded by the German Research Foundation (DFG), the Villa Vigoni, and Providence College. Languages of the conference are German, Italian, and English.

This event is part of a series on Philosophy in the Aristotelian Tradition. It is an initiative of the Working Group “Aristoteles in der Moderne” of the Gesellschaft für Antike Philosophie (GANPH).

C.I. Lewis, A Survey of Symbolic Logic, “Applications of the Boole-Schröder Algebra”, University of California Press: Berkeley/Los Angeles 1918, Fig. 24